PRESENTS

REPORT ON

18th May - 5th June 2015

SFORD Academy organised a special 'Summer Camp' for the students of class sixth, seventh and eighth. The class eighth students of last year's batch had also joined us.

For the development of skills various vocational activities were designed. Before the summer camp our selected staff members did counselling of students for skill wise segregation.

For summer camp management designed the time table. According to scheduled time table, all the fun activities and vocational activities were done. The different activities done in summer camp were -:

Students learned the recipes of gulab jamun, jalebi, khakhra and khaman dhokla. They cooked all these dishes practically under supervision of cooking expert.

 Product making

The students exposed to very invigorating learning sessions with 'hands-on-experience'. Kids understood the whole procedure of chalk making, candle making, detergent making and wax diya making. They participated in making of these products

Students got opportunity to fine their steps on bollywood dancing style on 'aawara bhanware'.

Games

The campus ground abuzz with sports activities. Students also participated in indoor games.

As the students engaged in the vocational activities of their interest, they had learned a lots from their respective activities. All the students showed great enthusiasm. There was curiosity and a spark of learning something new in our kids. With the great efforts and appreciating teamwork of our academic staff, summer camp organised successfully in SFORD Campus. At the end of camp, students shared their experiences with teachers. Activities promoted the group participation. The learning and development of vocational skills was our main aim.
